THE PRESS

WEDNESDAY.

ADVERTISERS, ATTENTION !- Bear in mind that the Panny Panss is read in a greater number of families than any other paper printed in Cincinnati; that the working-man reads it, that it is emphatically the people's paper, and is rapidly winning its way to a circulation unprecedented in the history of Western newspapers. The manufacturer and retail merchant can not but be benefitted by it as a medium of advertising.

The Irish Delegation.—The Irish Delegation of Ministers are expected to arrive in this city on Thursday evening next, and will be received by the committee of arrangements from the Business Men's Prayer Meeting. On Friday evening a mass meeting, to which all persons are cordially invited, will be held at Smith & Nixon's Hall, at which time they will be introduced to the public.

Night Distract Schools.—The semi-monthly reports of the Principals of the Night Schools in the First, Third, Seventh and Eighth Districts show that the number of pupils enrolled since their establishment, a period of four weeks, is 1,221, of whom 847 are in average nightly attendance, and 71 the per centum of attendance—much smaller than the attendance at the Day Schools.

DEATH FROM DELIBIUM TREMESS. - A German named Lorenzo Steiglin was committed to the City Prison, a few days ago, for drunkenness, but was shortly afterward seized with that ter-rible disease, delirium tremens, which aconer or later carries off most persons who are habitu-ally addicted to the use of the poison seld under the name of liquor. Yesterday about noon he was removed to the Commercial Hospital, but he died in a short time after being admitted into that institution. THE DATE ACCIDENT IN DELHI TOWNSHIP .-A week ago tast Sunday, a man named George Bowman, while hunting in Delhi Township, accidentally discharged the contents of his gus into his wrist. He was taken to the Com-mercial Hospital, and stace then has suffered considerably from the wound. Yesterday his physicians concluded they would be compelled to amputate his arm, which they accordingly did, and his recovery now is no longer a matte

AN UNFORTUNATE INMATEOF THE CITY PRISON NEARLY FROZEN TO DEATH.—Night before last a man suffering from delirium tremess was sent to the City Prison, and placed in a ceil, where he nearly froze to death, and would have done so, probably, had not several persons carried him out and laid him near the stove. The carclessness, not to say inhumanity, with which prisoners are often treated at that pestiferous institution ought to be checked at once.

This institution is now under the charge of Sister Anthony, a most charitable and capable lady, whose entire life has been devoted to the poor and afflicted, and under whose auspices it must of necessity prosper.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON THE LITTLE MIAMI RAILROAD.—A man, named George F. Outen, was quite seriously injured, day before yeswas in the act of jumping from one train to the other while one of them was in motion, when, in consequence of the slippery state of the steps, he fell under the wheels. His right arm was so badly crushed that amputation was deemed necessary, and after having been brought to the city and placed in the Commercial Hospital, the operation was performed. Theinjured man, although suffering severely from some other injuries, received terday, on the Little Miami Railroad. severely from some other injuries, received at the time, is in a fair way to recover.

THE GIBSON HOUSE .- We find the following complimentary notice of this excellent hote in the Mendota (III.) Observer: "During our late visit to Cincinnati—glorious old city—we made it a point to sit at the table of our friend O. H. Geoffroy, of the Gibson House. We found there that capital fellow and hotel clerk, John Henrie, and a new acquaintance, and most agreeable geutleman, Mr. Culbert-son, to both of whom we are indebted for civilities which we shall never forget. The Gibson is a popular house—handsomely fur-nished—eligibly located—central and commodious—sets as good a table as the most fastidious could ask for—and is officered by as good a set of gentlemen as ever lived any where. Our people when they go to Cincin-nati must not forget the Gibson—under pain of our displeasure.

A FEMALE ENTANGLEMENT AND ITS RESULT-RUBAL LOTHARIO IN TROUBLE .- A day or two ago a resident of Greene County arrived in the city with a young woman and slopped at an up-town hotel, representing his feminine companion as his wife. The day following another woman entered the public house and inquired for Mr. ——, from Greene County, on particular business. He was shown to his room, and, as seen as admitted, a scene ensued. The new-comer attacked the "wife." pulling her hair and actionally a scene ensued. The new-comer attacked the "wife," pulling her hair and seriously disarranging her attire, until the supposed spouse, in defense, scratched her antagonist's face sadly. The male element here interfered, and the assailant, with a burst of tears and rage, rushed out of the spartment, vowing revenge, and became invisible.

The next morning early, while the rustic was conversing with his wife, a knock was heard at the door, and he learned a person wished to see him down stairs. Descending, he found a constable with a warrant issued by Justice Getzendanner for his arrest for a violation of the seventh commandment. Having Justice Getzendanner for his arrest for a violation of the neventh commandment. Having no means of obtaining ball, he was compelled to return to the country in charge of a constable, leaving his so-called consort without even whispering an adiou.

This affair possibly seems a trifle mysterious, but will not when it is known that the Greene County individual had a wife there; but growing weary of her in a year, attached himself to another female; and tired of her in a few months, made a third alliance, and ran off with No. 3 to this city. His first mistress learning this, and fired by jealousy, followed him and swore out the warrant for his arrest, while his real wife bore all patiently, meekly and uncomplainingly at her described freeide. How the rustio fellow will arrange his difficulties with the three women Heaven only knows—but doubtless he will suffer like one pursued by the Puries.

Rev. C. Smarius on Spiritism

Rev. C. Smarius, formerly a Professor in St. Xavier College, of this city, but now of the St. Louis University, delivered his first lec-ture on "Spiritism," last evening, at Smith & Nixon's Hall, to a large and attentive au-

& Nixon's Hall, to a large and attentive audience.

By Spiritism, the reverend gentleman meant what was ordinarily understood as Spiritualism, and his purpose to show the absurdities and inconsistencies, the trivialities and frivolities of the "Harmonial Philosophy."

With this object he quoted very copiously from the works of Andrew Jackson Davis, whom he regarded as the high priest of the so-styled new philosophy, and greatly amused his audience by reading what the "Poughkeepsie Seer" had written concerning God, according to the Methodist, Episcopalian, Baptist, Presbyterian, Unitarian, and other churches, which, however blasphemous some may have considered it, was truly witty and may have considered it, was truly witty and opigrammatic.

The lecturer regarded Spiritism, as to its natural theology, its psychology and supernatural character, pointing out the entire variance of the philosophy with the Christian religion, and its absurd features, judged by the outhody, attended. The idea that by the orthodox standard. The idea that God could and did not punish; that men should depend on himself; that he was to consult his inner promptings; that death was not evil; that after this life the soul steadily progressed toward the truth, and grew in love and wisdom, and other purely rational ideas—entertained centuries ago—seemed to awaken not a little the surprise of the samiable and gifted gentleman, reared as he had been and gifted gentleman, reared as he had been in so different a creed.

Important to Deaymen.—Mayor Bishop, yesterday, notified the Lieutenants of the Police that he expected them to assist in causing all draymen and expressmen to have their vehicles registered and numbered according to law. Prompt attention to the ordinance on this subject may save many persons considerable trouble and perhaps money.

In so different a creed.

Many of the inconsistencies and absurdities of Spiritism were "shown up" with remarkable skill and considerable humor that elicited warm applause from his audience. He dwelt at length upon the singularity and danger of following nature, reason and intuition as our guides in the affairs of life, and of regarding God as entirely subjective instead of obing God as entirely subjective instead of objective, as He must be of necessity to the orthodox mind. The lecturer closed with the hope that our country would be spared from the further increase of Spiritism, and that it, with Free Love, would be soon extinguished in a republic which depended upon the good sense and virtue of the people for its continuance.

This is the crudest and most incomplete outline of adiscourse, foreible and metaphysical in character and indicative of a thoroughly analytical and highly disciplined intellect.

Rev. Mr. Smarius, who is a ripe scholar, a profound thinker and an eloquent speaker, will deliver his second and last lecture on Spiritism to-morrow (Thursday) evening at the same place.

A New Methodist Causon in Contemplation.—The members of Union Chapel held a meeting on Monday night, which was very largely attended, for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of building a new church, capacious enough to seat comfortably fifteen hundred persons. The congregation has increased greatly under the care of their new paster, Rev. George C. Robinson, and they find their church too small. A committee was appointed, to whom the matter was referred with power to sot in the premises, providing a sufficient amount of money could be raised to prosecute the work to completion and leave no debt upon the church.

Mr. R. is one of the few who deserve to be called workers, and is aware that those who belong to the churches, are they who do not A NEW METHODIST CHURCH IN CONTEMPLA belong to the churches, are they who do not need to hear the gospel most. On this ac-count he insists upon preaching once every Sunday in the open air, and the subject of street preaching gains from him the warmest support. He has endeared himself already to his congregation, and it is likely they will make an effort to keep him with them four instead of two years. We hope the new en-terprise may meet with all the success it de-

A fellow named Theodore Pisher for some time past has been in the habit of annoying the residents of a certain locality by exposing his person in the most disgusting manner. Yeaterday he was taken before Judge Lowe and fined $50 and costs. There is something so utterly void of all decency about an act of this kind, it is an evidence of so great a lack of all sense of shame, that one would naturally suppose the person who could be guilty of it was unfit to live. Almost anything in the way of scoundrelism is infinitely better than this, and society in protecting itself against immorality and crime, could do nothing better than to place such persons in a poing better than to place such persons in a po-sition where their influence could do no harm to those with whom they come in contact.

NARROW ESCAPE OF AN OLD CITIESN PROM DEATH.—Daniel Van Matre, Esq., very nar-rowly escaped a violent death a day or two ago while passing the new building in process of erection at the corner of Fourth and Race. The atructure is five stories high, and some careless workman let a crowbar fall from the top and struck the pavement but a foct or two from the place where Mr. Van M. stood. In rebounding the instrument struck his leg injuring it quite severely, although not disabling him entirely. We have been impressed, for some time, with the idea that the builders of this establishment have not used as much cases, and our instantion as is usual in such cases. caution as is usual in such cases, and our impression is growing atronger daily. AMUSEMENTS.

Wood's Theater—The Merchant of Venice—The enterprise of Mr. Elisier in putting this magnificent creation upon the stage at Wood's has thus far met with an unbounded success. The andience lest night was very large, and, it is understood, the hand in every part has been prepared with care. The supervision of Mr. Anderson, combined with the outlay of the management for new properties, all tend to render this one of the first Shaker parion spectacles ever given in the city.

The "Shylock" of Mr. Anderson is, as might be expected, an excellent impersuation. He appears inroughout the Christian-haing, money-loving few the bard created, and whether he told of his daughter or his discale, or seeks revenge, or agrees to take his principal, or receive the sentence of the duke, he never forgoet the part he has assumed. The character of "Portia" is admirably osseted and most of them, creditably rendered. It will be repeated unisevening National Theaters—Faust and Masculer.

NATIONAL TREATER-PAUST AND MARGUER-

NATIONAL THEATER—FAUST AND MARGUREITE.—This grand legendary spectacle, from the German of the immortal Goethe, and by far the greatest poem in the language, has been put upon the stage, at the National, in the most superb style. The scenery and machinery have for the most part been gotten up expressly for the occasion, and under the direct control of Mr. Reberts, who appears in the part of "Mephistophiles."

Many of the tableaux are very fine, and some of them worthy of the Keller Troups in the classical elegance and beauty. Of the "Apothesis of Marguerite" is one of the finest we over saw, and must be seen to be appreciated. Of the acting we need hardly speak. Mr. Roberts is a well-known and his rendition of the Goethean drams seems to be just what the author intended it.

The "Marguerite" of Mrs. Henri is quite good, and she looks the character admirably, while the "Fanat" of Mr. Stuart is admirable. Those who deaire to witness a spectacle gotton up without the nid of blue and red fire, and yet superbly, should not fail to see Fater and Marguzatre during the present opportunity.

PIKE'S OPERA-HOUSE-OPENING OF THE DEA MATIC SUSAN.—The Opera-house will open for the dramatic season this ovening with a splendid programme—the beautiful five act play of ANSE BLAKE, performed foran cuttre season at the Princess Thater, London, by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kean—and the delightful comedy of ALL THAT GLITTERS IS NOT GOLD.

Mr. and Mrs. Conway appear in the play, aided by the entire arrength of nearly all the accomplished artistes. The Opera-house will of course be crowded in every part, as it well deserves to be throughout the season.

Patrick O'Hara, unable to give any account of himself, was, after an examination, held to be insane, and was sent to the Asylum at Lick Run.

A BOY RUN OVER AND ALMOST KILLED .- A A BOY RUN OVER AND ALMOST KILLED.—A little boy, son of Mr. J. J. Starr, residing at No. 386 George-street, was run over yesterday afternoon by a milk-wagon, and nearly killed. His head was very badly braised, and he received some internal injuries, which will confine him for a long time to his bod, even if they do not prove fatal. The driver of the vehicle was arrested and lodged in the Ninthstreet. Station-house. He will have a hearing before Judge Lowe this morning, upon a charge of carcless driving. of careless driving.

COVINGTON NEWS.

Live Stock Market.—The hog market is now fairly opened. About two thousand head arrived yesterday from the neighborhood of Millersburg. Bourbon County, and about twelve hindred were disposed of immediately, at $4.50 to $4.50, gross Others were sold at from $5.50 to $5.50, neft. Drovers Inn is crowded with buyers, and prices are advancing. Besides these brought by reitroad, droves are constantly arriving by every principal road, from Grant. Pendleton, Boore, and other counties, some of which stopped at our stock pens, while others were criven directly to the ferry. A great number were contracted i.r. last spring at $1 per hundred, which, we think, will be about the average price paid during the season. Although the hogs brought now are not of the largest class, yet they are of excellent quality. quality.
Cattle are in poor demand, being worth from 2c. to 3%-, and dult at that. No shee juave been sold here for some time.

Police Coust .- Wm. Lumbkins was again Policis Court.—Wm. Lumbkins was again before the Police Court yesterday morning, and fined $7 40, for carrying concealed weapons. His puglistic propensities seem to be rather expensive for the present time, making about $3° of they have cost him two days, all of which he will be compelled to ray by breaking stone for the city, at the runs of fifty cents per day. Wm. Bradford, an 'old offender,' was fined $7 40 for peddling without license.

MISBERHAVIOR AT CHURCH.—For several Sundays not approach to several sundays not the contract of t days past, numerous boys, forgetting the sanctity of time and place, have conducted themselves in a rune and unbecoming manner to several of our churches. Such conduct is wrong in the extreme, and the offi-cers have determined that unless these boys desist, they will be made to suffer the penalty of the law, provided for the purpose. begonaric County Convention.—A number of County Conventions have been held by the Democrats, for the purpose of choosing delegates the State Convention, which latter will a lect delegates, to Charleston. A majority of the counties have indicated James Guthrie as their first choice for the Presidency.

GONE TO THE PENITERTIARY. — Mountjoy Wollem and John Mount, the two escaped convicts who have been lying in our jail for some days, were returned to Frankfort searchary. THE FAIR — The fair for the benefit of the Kenton Cadeia proved anything but a benefit, for the proceeds were less by $160 than the cost.

NEWPORT WEWS.

FIGHT.—Two men, named Reed and Foley, having become inspired by the spirits they had imbibed, had two pitored buttles, with nature's weapors, user the foot of York strust, yesterday evening. The parties did well, considering their opportunity, each inflicting numerous bloody, shough not dangerous, wounds on his antagonist. They were both lodged in jail.

Monday's New York Herald says of Saturday's Monday's New York Herald says of Saturday's financial affairs:

The Monoy market has not been quite so easy during the past week, though we can not quote any change in rates. On demand, toans are made at $266, according to the quality of the security tendered as collateral and the standing of the borrower. Parties who leave money with brokers in call can not get over $4645. The very lowers rate for Paper is 5 per cent, at which figure extremely choice acceptances. at $266,000 per cent; single names, first class, per cent; second-class names, $600; lower grades, per cent; second-class names, $600; lower grades, per cent; second-class names, $600; lower grades, $10611061, according to standing, date, &c., &c. The prevaiting in pression is that the Money market has settled down to low rates for the season.

Foreign Exchange continues to rule dull. There is very little demand from the importers; most of the leading drawers have had no easy week of it. We quote starting $61 asy bills (bankers) as 110621064, and abort sight, $10546110%; good mercantile bills at 106%61095; bills on Paris, 5.122,603% for 60 days, and 5.1061104, to abort sight. At these rates is requires some management to cover exchange by shipping appecies and for the present, we presume that the leading drawers will find it more profitable to purchase Octon bills.

The same number of the Herald observes: The same number of the Herald observes:

The Dry Goods market is quiet, as usual at this season, though the leading jobbors continue to self with freedom to city customers. The imports continue large, and spring goods are beginning to arrives. A large importation is generally expected by the trade. An advance in Woolen Goods is predicted by the authorities, on the arrength of the advance which has lately taken place in the raw material. If, however, the importers, aided by our banks, import foreign goods most spring as freely as they did this fall, it will require a very surprising advance in the raw material to save them from heavy loss.
